One flower, one thread, one story, one culture, one craft

One plant, one thread, one story.

ONE FLOWER, ONE THREAD, ONE STORY, ONE CULTURE, ONE CRAFT

Our second collection is a tribute to the vegetation of the South, where our weavers live. Raketa cacti, sisal, ochre earth: the landscape of Androy becomes material. Wild cotton blends with sisal and cotton yarn in modular pieces, both raw and refined. Presented in July 2025 at the Andafiavaratra Palace during the Tanà Design Festival Manja, it received the Commitment Trophy.
